GRACELAND FOREVER
by W.K. McElwain

Graceland forever, dear Alma Mater;
Long may she ever firm keep her stand.
Her sons and daughters carry to others
Her fame throughout the land. (Rah! Rah! Rah!)

Graceland College, we're all for you!
Strong, united, loyal and true.
We'll carry on 'til victory is won;
Oh, Graceland, we're all for you.

Well folks, it's the start of a new year, and we all know what that means—it's intramural football time! Yes, it's true, by Monday of next week we will all be running around on a dry football field pulling flags off of each other.

Intramural Director Chad McKee and his faithful board are both enthused and excited about the intramural activities of this year. With new organization and an enthusiastic board, this year in intramural sports promises to be one to remember.

One thing that McKee is particularly

Also, the one-punch rule is still in for all sports. Throw one punch, and you are kicked out of intramurals for the rest of the season. As director McKee put it,
"Let's keep it clean in football!"

McKee also was quick to point out that he and his board are always open for any new suggestions. On the board this year

RULES TO KNOW BEFORE YOU RAGE AT GRACELAND:

1) The only sounds you hear at night are the cows from the salebarn and the humming of the dolts next door, who decided 3:00 am was a good time to make a bid.

2) McDonalds suddenly becomes a necessity treat, instead of a daily study.

3) You go to a movie (that you saw last summer), or anything else in town, and everyone knows you.

4) You start to check your mail about eight times a day — partly to check your mail and mostly to check out who's in the MSC.

5) The time it takes to clear a check at a local business exceeds the time it would take to buy a plane ticket to South Africa, fly down there, mine some gold, bring it back, cash the gold in at a bank, and pay cash for the same purchase.

6) The net total amount of hugs you receive in one hour is greater-than-or-equal-to the amount you've received all summer.

7) Your car's wheels automatically turn towards Eagleville and State Line when you leave the parking lot.

A POEM ABOUT MUSIC

It's an art and it's a science.
It's a universal language without words.
It stirs the senses, kindles the fire of memory, soothes the troubled soul. This is music, a divine mystery, a blessing for mankind.

A poem for Romance

To come home to you

People alway say things like, "Do you ever feel like getting away from it all?" Away from the worries of the rush-about days that always seem to be?
I know that I do...
I need something in my life that is solid and secure and someplace that I can escape to — where I can close out any worries and open up to more peaceful things.
I'm luckier than a lot of people, I guess —
For I have found someplace I can go where my heart is always happy to be and where I have someone
I can turn to,
someone who is an essential part of me.
And the best part of all
is that all I have to do...
is just come home to you.

She's skipping...

Easter is the second most popular day to attend church, and it is a day for families to spend together. Yet Graceland, a Christian college, is asking those of us who live seven or more hours away to miss it. Classes begin March 27th. There is no possible way for me to go to church on Easter, drive for twelve hours and be ready to go to my eight o'clock class on Monday. I think a lot of other people have this same concern.

So, what is our solution: miss church to get to classes on Monday or skip Monday's classes to attend Easter services? Is it fair for Graceland to ask us to choose school over church and family? I don't think so.

Maybe Graceland will take Easter into consideration when planning next year's spring break. But for this year, I think I'll choose my church and family.

Temple design revealed

President Wallace B. Smith of the RLDS church presented the first design sketches of the Independence Temple at a news briefing September 16. The temple's design is a spiral form, symbollic of life, energy and infinite growth and was modelled after a nautilus shell, the human umbilical cord, galactic nebulas, many plants and other forms of life. Spiralling 340 feet into the air, the temple will be the only design of this kind and proportion in the world.

Women's tennis: superb season

Hodge leads way as freshman

By Daniel Brigham
Sports Writer

Last week at Johnson Co. Community College in Kansas City, Missouri, the woman's tennis team completed one of their most successful fall seasons to date.

The Jackets unfortunately lost the dual meet to rival JCCC by a score of 6-3 and finished the season at 8-2. The final loss was only the second for the women, despite some remarkable play from their top players.

Freshman Amy Hodge, a definite force this season, won both her number one singles match along with her number one doubles match. The number one doubles team of Hodge and Lynn Wallace showed both skill and determination in their impressive victory. The number two doubles team of Claudine Lewis and Nicole Elvin along with the number three team of Debbie Rae and Yoko Shimazaki also place first in their respective matches.

"This has been the best fall season for the girls ever in my memory," Coach Jerry Hampton said. "I am very pleased with their marked improvement over last spring." Hodge has really helped direct the team towards success, stepping into the number one spot as a freshman and impressing all who saw her play. According to her teammates she has steadily continued to improve and should be an even stronger player when the spring season rolls around.

The women are really looking forward to the spring season. With off season practice and weight training the women, with strong play from Hodge, Wallace, Shimazaki, and Lewis should be in good position to improve on their 8-2 record and establish the Graceland woman's tennis team as a force to be reckoned with.

In singles action, number one Amy Hodge led the way with a 6-3, 6-1 victory.

Once again, Hodge led the way with a victory, 1-6, 6-0, 6-2. Backing up Hodge in singles with victories were Wallace, Shimazaki, and Rae. Hodge/Lewis recorded a victory in doubles to assure Graceland the match.

In singles, Hodge, Elvin, and Wallace all recorded wins.

Amy Hodge gives a lot of strength in the number one position, and the rest continue working hard and improving."

Kelly Galbraith (12). "There was a definite change in momentum in the second half," said Asst. Coach Becky Barritt. "Kelly was really on, and got some clutch baskets and rebounds for us."

Galbraith took that intensity into last Tuesday's match against Central Methodist in Fayette, Mo. Galbraith who re-

Kelley Galbraith, Wendy Bishop and Cindi Webb each had five rebounds.

Despite playing better Monday night in Indianola, the Lady Yellowjackets (0-2) still lost to Simpson. The scores were 9-15, 10-15, 15-13 and 10-15.

This year's team consists of returining starters: Robin Fitzgerald (an All-District player and co-captain), Dara Mennis, Mia Ahmann and Sandra Thomas. Also returning are: Sandi Nace (co-captain), Juli Graffeo and Cindi Webb. Rounding out the roster are: Kathy Schmitz, Julee Lowenthal, Marla Swoffer, Mary Heisserer and Jill Williams.

For the women, runner Kris Dahl led the team with a time of 23.05 for the 3.1 mile long race.
